

Eunice Nakamura

General Counsel and Corporate Secretary

Eunice Nakamura serves as General Counsel and Corporate Secretary and is responsible for the Legal, Audit, Risk and Compliance functions for Komen. She also serves as advisor to the leadership team at Komen as well as to Komen’s Board of Directors. Eunice began her legal career as a business litigator in Dallas, representing corporations and organizations of all types and sizes. She has also served as Vice President of Legal for an international hotel company overseeing legal, compliance and litigation functions prior to joining Komen.

Eunice is an active member of the bar community and has served in various capacities throughout her career. To highlight a few, she has served on the board of the Dallas Bar Association while serving as President of the Dallas Asian American Bar Association. She is a fellow of the Dallas Bar Foundation as well as a past board member of the Dallas Women Lawyers Association. She currently sits on the board of the Dallas Women Lawyers Association’s Foundation and serves as advisory board member to the Dallas Asian American Bar Association.

Eunice is a frequent speaker at legal conferences and seminars around the country on various topics, especially speaking from the perspective of in-house/corporate counsel. She has been recognized by D CEO as “Outstanding In House Counsel” as well as named to the Lawyers of Color’s “Hotlist.”

Eunice holds a B.A. in Political Science from Baylor University and obtained her Juris Doctor from Texas A&M University School of Law. She and her husband live with their son in the Dallas area.