

Dine Out for the Cure® Frequently Asked Questions about Applications

1. Why does the Dine Out for the Cure® program require an application?
2. Why would my Dine Out for the Cure® application be denied approval?
3. How long does it take for the DOFTC applications to be approved?

1. Why does the Dine Out for the Cure® program require an application?

Susan G. Komen® must thoroughly review and approve all proposed corporate relationships on a case-by-case basis to ensure that the relationship is consistent with our mission

2. What types of programs are prohibited by Komen?

(1) Programs in which a contribution to Komen is directly generated through the sale of:

- Alcohol
- Sexually inappropriate entertainment

(2) Programs or relationships with corporations that raise questions as to whether or not they are consistent with our mission or practices or may involve a perceived or actual conflict.

(3) Programs that involve a donation tied to a particular product or service.

3. How long does it take for the DOFTC applications to be approved?

All applications will be reviewed within 48 business hours.