

Lisa E. Guerra, MD

Breast Surgical Oncologist

2026 Pink Tie Partner OC Susan G. Komen

Dr. Lisa E. Guerra is a breast surgical oncologist at Breastlink Newport Beach. Having previously served as part of the Hoag Breast Center team, where she also held the position of Assistant Clinical Professor of Surgery at the USC Keck School of Medicine, and as part of the MemorialCare Cancer Institute, she has dedicated over seventeen years to caring for patients in Orange County.

She has received various recognitions, from her training, including the Best Resident Teacher Award in her final year and as recipient of the Judith and David Buell Fellowship in Breast Surgery as a fellow, in addition to subsequent acknowledgements including as an Orange County Physician of Excellence and Outstanding Breast Health Advocate.

Dr. Guerra's passion for breast care extends into active involvement with Susan G. Komen in Orange County as one of the founding members of Unidos Contra el Cancer de Seno, and Komen OC's Missions Chair, past Pink Tie Ball co-chair, and as a former and current board member she is a frequent speaker and advocate for Komen's work. Dr. Guerra is a proud recipient of the Komen Warrior Award.
